- (1) The number of securities beneficially owned is determined under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under those rules, beneficial ownership includes any securities as to which the individual has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any securities which the individual has the right to acquire within 60 days after the date the selling holder provided this information, through the exercise of any stock option or other right. The inclusion in the table of securities, however, does not constitute an admission that the selling holders are direct or indirect beneficial owners of those securities. The selling holders have sole voting power and investment power with respect to all securities of capital stock listed as owned by the selling holders.
- (2) The selling securityholder is the affiliate of a registered broker-dealer, however the selling securityholder purchased the securities in the ordinary course of business and, at the time of purchase, had no agreements or understandings, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the securities.
- (3) UBS Securities LLC, a registered broker-dealer, acted as a dealer-manager in connection with the exchange of the old notes for the new notes. The securities to be sold by UBS Securities LLC hereunder were not issued or sold as underwriting compensation.

The selling holders identified above may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of all or a portion of their Notes since the date on which they provided the information about their Notes in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.
